A significant moment was the visit to the Municipal History Museum, where, in addition to getting acquainted with the history of the people of Gibara, they learned about the implementation of the Tarea Vida in that coastal area.

To go deeper into the subject, the visitors enjoyed the presentation of the work "Lamento por una gota de agua" (Lament for a drop of water) by the Audiovisual Voces Project, an opportunity that led to a debate on the subject and comments on their work during the twelve years of its creation.

The caravanists took the opportunity to enjoy the rhythm of the waves of the Bay of Gibara, to see swimmers of peace and hope, of love and solidarity, who sail with their hearts in our beautiful sea.

The Villa Blanca de los Cangrejos is happy to have these supportive friends sharing our identity, culture and natural wealth.

In the evening a political-cultural gala took place where those present applauded the artistic delivery of the gibareños; occasion where the Cuban culture illuminated the night of Gibara.

The members of the Pastores por la Paz Caravan enjoyed a show with elements of our most authentic roots, traditions, intangible heritage and our identity.

They highlighted the music of our fields, the voice of the children, controversies, traditional dances, among other moments lived in the Jibá cinema.

And the melody of Cuban music stimulated the souls of those attending the gala, where the organ made dance to dance in harmonious dance lived the joy of both peoples.

We shared a beautiful evening with such wonderful human beings who accompany us in the most just and noble cause in the world, as artisans and artists exhibited their works in the lobby of the gala.

At the end the friends from Cuba, and of course from Gibara, thanked for the love and joy received in the village.
