The celebration of July 26, National Rebellion Day, brought with it a series of construction actions for the well-being of the people of Holguin, as it was observed in the municipality of Rafael Freyre, which took part in the provincial act for the date.

In the ceremony held in the mausoleum square that bears the name of the distinguished martyr of the territory - Rafael Freyre Torres - and that gives its name to this coastal municipality, the people were happy for the appointment with history and for the numerous works inaugurated or reopened after a major renovation.

The Casita Infantil "Manzanitas del Cariño" (day care), in Fray Benito, stood out, where many neighbors gathered for the inauguration of the dream of this town, as said Orlando Toledo Velázquez, retired worker from Public Health, what was a great need there because, "for example, my daughter and my granddaughter, both work in Education, and here they will take care of their children and will no longer have to pay more than a thousand or almost two thousand pesos to a caregiver".

One of the beneficiaries, Yanitza Morgado Ramos, a psychology graduate who works as a psychopedagogue at the Antonio Maceo mixed center, whose three year old daughter will be cared for in this Casita Infantil, said "now I feel relieved, besides being immensely grateful for this new and quality service that will allow me in the future to make better use of her salary".
