As part of the Working System of the Provincial Government of Holguín, the organizations and entities related to the Group of Confrontation to line makers and resellers met this week to assess the current situation.

The meeting held at the seat of the Provincial Government was led by Deputy Governor Yunia Perez Hernandez, and analyzed the most important incidents, which showed the need to deepen and speed up supplies for a better organization in the sales of each municipality.

An example of the actions of the Comprehensive Supervision Directorate in the province was the seizure of a significant amount of garlic from a vendor in Pueblo Nuevo, who was selling the product above the established prices. This operation was made possible by the timely reporting of neighbors in the area, whose response was not long in coming. During the rest of the day, 67 decrees were applied and other confiscations of rice, peas and other products was made.

"This is the moment to face the problems and act accordingly," said Pérez Hernández.

Among the actions taken by the Ministry of Interior are 48 operations
