Throughout the country, Cuban deputies observed the amendments made to each bill, in addition to clarifying doubts by each speaker regarding the documents under discussion.

On the debates held, ¡Ahora! newspaper, the official organ of the Party in the territory, reflects the criteria of two local deputies. In the case of Reina Salermo Escalona, deputy from the municipality of Baguanos, says:

"It has been an exercise involving team intelligence where we have contributed with important criteria that generate modifications or transformations in the articles or chapters of each project.

In the case of Dr. Yanet Pupo Estupiñan, deputy for the municipality of Holguin, states that the previous discussion was very valuable, having the draft laws in advance and being able to delimit, through different means, the points, doubts, changes or modifications.

"It has demanded from us a lot of maturity, study and responsibility, and it shows that we can improve our work as representatives of the people", she stated.

For his part, Esteban Lazo Hernandez, president of the ANPP, praised the morning session as positive, where the concerns of the parliamentarians were analyzed and debated in depth and organization.

In the afternoon, recently elected deputies throughout the country took office, among them Ernesto Santiesteban Velazquez, the first secretary of the Party in Holguin.

Then the Permanent Commissions of the ANPP for International Relations, Constitutional and Legal Affairs and Economic Affairs met to analyze and approve the proposals for opinions on the projects presented.
