With the participation of pioneers of "Lidia Doce" junior high school, who dedicated to Fidel thoughts, poems and songs that exalt his life and show us the way to follow to be better people every day, and in tribute to such a worthy date, the commitment of those present was reaffirmed to continue his work, to work hard every day to move forward and be faithful to the Communist Party of Cuba.

The meeting was attended by Julio César Estupiñán Rodríguez, Governor of this province, who in his words expressed the importance of the new generations to continue defending the work bequeathed by Fidel, while praising the role of Cuban science in the creation of vaccines against Covid-19 to save lives, including that for children, in addition to planning another dose of immunological reinforcement.

In the end, the participants placed flowers in front of a picture of the Leader to reaffirm their commitment to the defense of the Revolution.
