

As part of democracy, Yunia Perez Hernandez, Vice Governor of Holguin province, renders account before Governor Julio Cesar Estupiñán Rodríguez, who presides over the meeting of the Administration Entity of the Provincial Government of Holguin, held this December 14, 2021.

In her management report, the Vice-Governor reflected the achievements obtained and improvements to be undertaken as regards: macro programs, health, attention to the population and other matters entrusted by the Governor.

Once the reading of the account rendering report was concluded, the members of the Administration Entity of the Provincial Government of Holguin expressed their criteria on the management of the also deputy to the Cuban Parliament.

"In this rendering of account it is important to refer to the work systems, their implementation and results," said Lázaro Chávez Novo, official of the Office of Attention to the local bodies of the People's Power in the Council of Ministers.

Yunia Perez Hernandez Administrative Entity Holguin Provincial Government f Grettel "This rendering of account is not an evaluation of a picture, but of the government's management. We work for the people", said Chávez Novo.

On his part, Governor Julio César Estupiñán Rodríguez expressed that "This stage has been, and still is, complex. With the presence of Yunia and her commitment we have achieved a lot. She is fundamental in the management of the government. She is present in the most difficult battles".

Qualities of a leadership capable of assuming any task is a common criterion among the officials of the Administrative Entity of the Provincial Government of Holguín about the Vice-governor Yunia Pérez Hernández.