

The highest political and government authorities in the province of Holguin and the head municipality made this Wednesday 29th a tour of the markets and sales areas of the end of the year fair and in salute to the 63rd anniversary of the triumph of the Cuban Revolution.

At first, the delegation, headed by Ernesto Santiesteban Velázquez - First Secretary of the Party in the province and Governor Julio César Estupiñán Rodríguez, checked in Los Chinos market and Lenin square the guidelines given for sales.

He called the attention the commercialization of different varieties of viands and meat, vegetables and grains in the markets and points of sales by state units and cooperatives.

Good organization and discipline were observed in the population that went to the butcher's shops for the regulated purchase of pork, beef, ovine-caprine and poultry, as well as the varied offer of vegetables and industrial products.

Then the tour continued under the guidance of Juan Domínguez Pérez of the Provincial Party Bureau, Osmany Viñals García - First Secretary of the Party in the municipality of Holguín, the mayor of this territory - Yunior Torres Almaguer-, among other executives of the Party, of the government and of the territorial Agriculture system.

The First Secretary of the Party in the municipality of Holguin, Osmany Viñals Garcia called attention to the difference in prices between the markets.

The also member of the Provincial Party Committee recalled that the agreement was to sell below 30% of the commercial margin.

Another aspect that Viñals García criticized was the sale at almost similar prices of products with different quality.

Notwithstanding these punctual incongruities, the variety of options stood out in the end of the year fair, which was organized in salute to the 63rd anniversary of the triumph of the Revolution.

State entities and producers from eight municipalities of Holguin, including neighboring Granma province, participated in this great agricultural festival.

He highlighted the sale of beef and pork at much more advantageous prices, as well as the fact that they have gone beyond the traditional agricultural markets and have reached other small squares and butcher's shops in the communities, which avoids crowds in times of the necessary physical distance.

He highlighted the sale at better prices of syrup, cookies, candies, soft drinks, rum and wine, as well as the presence of productions of the Dairy, the Food Industry and the Fishing Company in the Ideal
